Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)

In accordance with our regulatory obligations, and as set out in our Privacy Notice, information will be retained for a minimum of seven years after the end of our relationship with you.

- As required under UK GDPR, consent must be given before any communication can be sent to your personal email address about services other than those already provided.
- At any time, you can ask for your personal data to be removed from CCLA databases unless it is required to be retained for legal or regulatory reasons. Please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk or telephone us at 0800 022 3505.
- If you change your email address, or any of the other information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk.
- You can contact the CCLA office to receive a copy of any of your personal data currently held by us once we have received proof of your identity.
- Any details you give us will be held in accordance with current data protection legislation.
- We will not share your personal data with third parties, unless we have your permission to do so in accordance with your contract with us, or we are required to do so by law.
- We do not sell any personal data held.
- When you give us personal data, we take steps to ensure that it is treated securely. Information you send to us electronically is transmitted over the internet, but this cannot be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal data, CCLA cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Conflicts of interest

CCLA operates a Conflicts of Interest Policy to ensure that our clients are treated fairly. Our policy seeks to avoid circumstances which we consider may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and material disadvantage to our clients.

CCLA's Conflicts of Interest Policy can be found on its website at www.ccla.co.uk.

Anti-money laundering

You may be asked to provide documentation to assist CCLA in verifying the identity of any individuals referenced in this form in accordance with regulatory requirements. This is normally done using electronic means but occasionally extra documents may be required from you to complete this process.

Client categorisation

To invest in the Fund you must either request to be treated as an elective professional client (and CCLA must agree to this) or we will categorise you as a retail client if you have solicited independent financial advice and this has concluded that the Fund is suitable for you.

FATCA

The US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) was implemented to enable the Internal Revenue Service to combat US tax evasion. It requires "foreign financial institutions" (such as the Fund) to report on US investors. Failure to comply (or be deemed compliant) with these requirements may mean that foreign financial institutions are subject to US withholding taxes on certain US sourced income and gains. Under an intergovernmental agreement between the US and the United Kingdom, the Fund may be deemed compliant if it identifies and reports US taxpayer information directly to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC).

Similar reporting requirements may also apply to the Fund in respect of any unitholders who are not solely UK tax resident following laws enacted to implement the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS).

Accordingly, unitholders should note that:

- they may be asked to provide additional information (including information regarding their tax residence) to the manager to enable the Fund to satisfy these obligations;
- the manager may be required to report these details to HMRC; and
- HMRC may subsequently exchange this information with other governments or tax authorities in other jurisdictions.

Institutional unitholders may be required to provide a Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN). Failure to provide the requested information may subject a unitholder to liability for any resulting US withholding taxes, US tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the unitholder's interest in its units. The GIIN for the Fund is available on request.

By signing the application form to subscribe for units, each unitholder agrees and acknowledges that, in certain circumstances, the manager will be obliged to share this information with UK tax authorities, who may pass it on to other tax authorities. Unitholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA or CRS on their interest in the Fund.
