Section 2 Directors' (or equivalent) Authorisation

This section must be read, completed and signed by a minimum of two and up to four directors (or equivalent) of The Local Authority who have control and management over its affairs.

Data Protection Act 1998

CCLA may collect and process personal data about you in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. You agree that CCLA may process your personal data to: (i) confirm your identity and carry out background checks; (ii) provide its services to you; (iii) follow up with you after you request information about its services; (iv) comply with all applicable laws and to fulfil its regulatory obligations; (v) prevent and detect abuse of its services; and (vi) as otherwise agreed by you.

CCLA may keep records of all business transactions for at least five years. You have a right to inspect copies of contract notes and entries in CCLA's books or computerised records relating to your personal data and transactions (subject to payment of an administration fee). CCLA will treat all clients' records as confidential and so reserve the right to provide copies of your particular record, rather than allow access to files which may contain information about other clients.

CCLA may use your personal data to contact you by post, e-mail or telephone to bring to your attention additional products or services which may be of interest to you. You may inform CCLA at any time if you do not want to receive such communications.

Please see the Scheme Information for further details of CCLA's Data Protection Policy and full details of CCLA's Data Protection Policy are available on request.

Anti-money laundering

We may need to ask you for documentation to assist us in verifying your identity. We must verify your identity in accordance with regulatory requirements. We normally do this using electronic means but occasionally we have to ask for extra documents from you to complete this process.

Suitability and Appropriateness

Please note that we will not assess the suitability or appropriateness of transactions for you or services provided to you and you will not benefit from the protection of the regulatory requirements on assessing suitability and appropriateness. You should consult an intermediary if you require investment advice.

Client Classification

CCLA is required to apply to all its clients a classification so that they receive an appropriate level of investor protection. As per the FCA rules, CCLA will categorise you as a Retail Client giving you the highest level of protection available. However, as the Local Authorities' Property Fund is designed for Professional investors, to invest in the fund Local Authorities are required to either opt-up to Elective Professional Client status or provide evidence that a professional financial adviser has determined the Local Authorities' Property Fund is suitable for you notwithstanding being classified as a Retail Client.

Please note, there are certain protections that Retail Clients receive that may not be available to Professional Clients categorised as Retail Clients. In particular, they may not be able to refer complaints to the Financial Ombudsman Service and are not generally eligible complainants under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

FATCA

The UK International Tax Compliance (United States of America) Regulations 2014 (the UK Regulations) came into force on 30 June 2014 and implement the "Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of the United States of America to Improve International Tax Compliance and to Implement FATCA" (commonly known as FATCA). Under UK Regulations, Financial Institutions must identify all reportable accounts and establish the tax residency of all account holders not just in respect of US persons. More background on how FATCA has been implemented in the UK can be found in HMRC's Guidance Notes at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/uk-us-automatic-exchange-of-information-agreement/uk-us-automatic-exchange-of-information-agreement>.

In order to comply with the UK Regulations, the Manager may be required to collect certain information about each Unitholder's tax residence(s), and determine whether it is obliged to submit certain account information to UK tax authorities, who may pass it on to other tax authorities.

Unitholders may also be asked to provide additional information to the Manager to enable the Fund to satisfy its obligations. Institutional Unitholders may be required to provide a Global Intermediary Identifications Number (GIIN). Failure to provide requested information may subject a Unitholder to liability for any resulting US withholding taxes, US tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the Unitholder's interest in its Units. The GIIN for the Fund is available on request.

By signing the application form to subscribe for Units, each Unitholder agrees and acknowledges that, in certain circumstances, the Manager will be obliged to share this information with UK tax authorities, who may pass it on to other tax authorities. Unitholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA on their interest in the Fund.
