Fund update

The portfolio has no predetermined allocations to any sector, instead stocks are selected on a ‘bottom-up’ basis reflecting our assessment of their ability to contribute to long term returns. We favour companies with strong free cash flows and growth potential which is not dependent on the trends in the broad economy. There were no structural changes to the portfolio over the period. Instead, activity was driven by a strong focus on valuations which saw reduced exposure to companies which we considered too fully valued.
