Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)

In accordance with our regulatory obligations, and as set out in our Privacy Notice, information will be retained for a minimum of seven years after the end of our relationship with you.

- As required under UK GDPR, consent must be given before any communication can be sent to your personal email address about services other than those already provided.
- At any time, you can ask for your personal data to be removed from CCLA databases unless it is required to be retained for legal or regulatory reasons. Please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk or telephone us at 0800 022 3505.
- If you change your email address, or any of the other information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk.
- You can contact the CCLA office to receive a copy of any of your personal data currently held by us once we have received proof of your identity.
- Any details you give us will be held in accordance with current data protection legislation.
- We will not share your personal data with third parties, unless we have your permission to do so in accordance with your contract with us, or we are required to do so by law.
- We do not sell any personal data held.
- When you give us personal data, we take steps to ensure that it is treated securely. Information you send to us electronically is transmitted over the internet, but this cannot be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal data, CCLA cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your information, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems mainly in password accessed databases.
- We do not collect information automatically from our website.
- Personal data will be retained in CCLA's systems which are password protected.

Please see the website for details of CCLA's Privacy Notice and full details of CCLA's Data Protection Policy are available on request.

Conflicts of interest

CCLA operates a Conflicts of Interest Policy to ensure that our clients are treated fairly. Our policy seeks to avoid circumstances which we consider may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and material disadvantage to our clients.

CCLA's Conflicts of Interest Policy can be found on its website at www.ccla.co.uk.

Anti-money laundering

You may be asked to provide documentation to assist CCLA in verifying your identity in accordance with regulatory requirements. This is normally done using electronic means but occasionally extra documents may be required from you to complete this process.

Client categorisation

CCLA is required to categorise all its clients so that they receive an appropriate level of investor protection. CCLA will categorise you as a Retail Client giving you the highest level of protection available.

For your information, the next level of categorisation would be Professional Client, which is an organisation that is considered to have the necessary experience, knowledge and expertise to make its own decisions and assess the associated risk. A Professional Client must meet any of the following conditions:

- (a) a body corporate which has called up share capital or net assets of at least £5m;
- (b) an undertaking that meets two of the following tests:
 - (i) balance sheet total of EUR 12.5m;
 - (ii) net turnover of EUR 25m;
 - (iii) an average number of employees during the year of 250;
- (c) an unincorporated association, which has net assets of at least £5m;
- (d) a trustee of a trust which has assets of at least £10m.

Clients that fall into this size category will receive less protection than would otherwise be the case by CCLA categorising them as a Retail Client. However, there are certain protections that Retail Clients receive that may not be available to Professional Clients categorised as Retail Clients. In particular, they may not be able to refer complaints to the Financial Ombudsman Service and are not eligible complainants under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

How your money may be held

Where you provide money to us by way of an electronic transfer in order to invest in the PSDF, if we have not paid this money to the Depositary of the Company by the end of the business day following the date of receipt of the money, we are required to treat this money as client money and pay this money into a client money account. Please note that, until the end of the business day following the date of receipt of the money, it is possible that your money will not be held as client money and therefore will not be segregated under the FCA's client money rules.

Where you provide money to us by way of a cheque in order to invest in the PSDF, we will treat this money as client money and will pay it into a client money account by close of business on the day following receipt, where it will remain until such time as it is paid to the Depositary of the Company.

In addition, we are required to treat as client money any redemption proceeds which we continue to hold at the end of the business day following the day that we receive your redemption proceeds from the Depositary. You acknowledge and agree that, until this time, it is possible that these proceeds will not be held as client money and therefore will not be segregated under the FCA's client money rules.

FATCA

The US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) was implemented to enable the Internal Revenue Service to combat US tax evasion. It requires "foreign financial institutions" (such as the Company) to report on US investors. Failure to comply (or be deemed compliant) with these requirements may mean that foreign financial institutions are subject to US withholding taxes on certain US sourced income and gains. Under an intergovernmental agreement between the US and the United Kingdom, the Company may be deemed compliant if it identifies and reports US taxpayer information directly to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC).

Similar reporting requirements may also apply to the Company in respect of any Shareholders who are not solely UK tax resident following laws enacted to implement the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS).

Accordingly, Shareholders should note that:

- they may be asked to provide additional information (including information regarding their tax residence) to the ACD to enable the Company to satisfy these obligations;
- the ACD may be required to report these details to HMRC; and
- HMRC may subsequently exchange this information with other governments or tax authorities in other jurisdictions.

Institutional Shareholders may be required to provide a Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN). Failure to provide the requested information may subject a Shareholder to liability for any resulting US withholding taxes, US tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the Shareholder's interest in its Shares. The GIIN for the PSDF is available on request.

By signing the application form to subscribe for Shares, each Shareholder agrees and acknowledges that, in certain circumstances, the ACD will be obliged to share this information with UK tax authorities, who may pass it on to other tax authorities. Shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA or CRS on their interest in the Company.

Consequently, investors do not benefit from the protection of the rules on assessing appropriateness and suitability provided within the Regulations.
