

Section 2 Authorising Trustees/Executive Directors' Authorisation

This section must be read, completed and signed by a minimum of two Trustees/Executive Directors who have the authority to act on behalf of the Charity.

Anti-Money Laundering

We may need to ask you for documentation to assist us in verifying your identity. We must verify your identity in accordance with regulatory requirements. We normally do this using electronic means but occasionally we have to ask for extra documents from you to complete this process.

We represent, warrant and undertake that:

- The Charity is eligible to invest in the COIF Charity Funds and indemnifies CCLA against any liabilities arising out of its ineligibility;
- We have read and understood the contents of the COIF Charity Fund Scheme Particulars for each fund we are going to invest in;
- We are authorised to act on behalf of the Charity;
- The correspondent and authorised signatories are known to us;
- To the best of our knowledge none of our Trustees are Politically Exposed Persons ("an individual who is or has, at any time in the preceding year, been entrusted with prominent public functions, or an immediate family member, or a known close associate, of such a person"). This definition only applies to those holding such a position in a state outside the UK, or in a Community institution or an international body;
- We will notify CCLA of any changes to the authorising Trustees/Executive Directors', correspondent and/or authorised signatories;
- If this form is being authorised by a sole trustee/director (or equivalent), it is understood that this is only permitted where there are no other trustee/executive directors';
- The account(s) will be used to hold only Charitable money; and
- If the investing organisation ceases to be a charity we will inform CCLA immediately and disinvest.
- We understand that in the provision of this service, CCLA are executing the transaction on an execution-only basis and are not providing advice on the merits of the transaction and in relation to which the rules on assessment of appropriateness and suitability do not apply. Consequently investors do not benefit from the protection of the rules on assessing appropriateness and suitability provided within the Regulatory Rules.
- You should consult an intermediary if you require investment advice.

We authorise you to:

- Conduct the account(s) as instructed in this application form until you are instructed to the contrary on a mandate form;
- Accept faxed instructions that purport to be properly issued in accordance with this application form. We indemnify you against any costs or loss arising from your acting on such instructions.

Operating Instructions

Charity Commission guidance states that accounts should be operated by at least two authorised signatories. We do however understand that this is not always practical for smaller charities. Do you wish for the account to be operated by:

Section 6

Email Indemnity

Instructions on a CCLA form, sent by e-mail to us as a PDF, and signed in accordance with the account mandate, can be accepted if we have the relevant indemnity.

Please complete this section if you would like us to accept instructions by email.

Important Information: A PDF version of a CCLA form attached to your email is your instruction to us and should be sent to scanning@ccla.co.uk Do not send the original documentation in the post and do not resend the email and/or the attachment as your instruction may be processed again. This mailbox will automatically upload the PDF for processing so any additional information contained in the body of the email will not be seen. If you have any additional information about the instruction please send your email and PDF to clientservices@ccla.co.uk

Authority to accept email instructions

In consideration of CCLA agreeing to accept from us, notwithstanding the terms of the relevant mandate, from time to time instructions purporting to come from us in the form of email instructions in relation to our account(s), we confirm that:

- We are aware of the possible risks involved in connection with the giving of any email instructions inasmuch as, but not limited to CCLA not being in a position to verify our signatures to the original document, email instructions purportedly with respect to our account and as given by us and CCLA not being able to distinguish that such email instructions have not come from us
- We undertake to keep CCLA fully indemnified at all times from: all actions; proceedings; claims; loss; damage; costs and expenses including consequential losses/damages which may be brought against CCLA or suffered or incurred by CCLA and which shall have arise neither directly or indirectly out of or in connection with CCLA accepting email instructions purportedly from us and acting thereon, whether or not the same are from us

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Client Categorisation

CCLA is required to categorise all its clients so that they receive an appropriate level of investor protection. CCLA will categorise you as a Retail Client giving you the highest level of protection available.

For your information, the next level of categorisation would be Professional Client, which is an organisation that is considered to have the necessary experience, knowledge and expertise to make its own decisions and assess the associated risk. A Professional Client must meet any of the following conditions:

- (a) a body corporate which has called up share capital or net assets of at least £5m;
- (b) an undertaking that meets two of the following tests:
  - (i) balance sheet total of EUR 12.5m;
  - (ii) net turnover of EUR 25m;
  - (iii) an average number of employees during the year of 250;
- (c) an unincorporated association, which has net assets of at least £5m;
- (d) a trustee of a trust which has assets of at least £10m.

Clients that fall into this size category will receive less protection than would otherwise be the case by CCLA categorising them as a Retail Client. However, there are certain protections that Retail Clients receive that may not be available to Professional Clients categorised as Retail Clients. In particular they may not be able to refer complaints to the Financial Ombudsman Service and are not eligible complainants under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

Conflicts of Interest

CCLA operates a Conflicts of Interest Policy to ensure that our clients are treated fairly. Our policy seeks to avoid circumstances which we consider may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and material disadvantage to our clients.

CCLA's Conflict of Interest Policy can be found on its website at www.ccla.co.uk.

Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

In accordance with our regulatory obligations, and as set out in our Privacy Notice, information will be retained for a minimum of six years after the end of our relationship with you.

- As required under GDPR, consent must be given before any communication can be sent to your personal e-mail address about services other than those already provided.
- At any time, you can ask for your personal data to be removed from CCLA databases unless it is required to be retained for legal or regulatory reasons. Please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk or telephone us at 0800 022 3505.
- If you change your email address, or any of the other information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please email us at client\_services@ccla.co.uk
- You can contact the CCLA office to receive a copy of any of your personal data currently held by us once we have received proof of your identity.
- Any details you give us will be held in accordance with current data protection legislation.
- We will not share your personal data with third parties, unless we have your permission to do so in accordance with your contract with us, or we are required to do so by law.
- We do not sell any personal data held.
- When you give us personal data, we take steps to ensure that it is treated securely. Information you send to us electronically is transmitted over the internet, but this cannot be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal data, CCLA cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your information, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems mainly in password accessed databases.
- We do not collect information automatically from our website.
- Personal data will be retained in CCLA's systems which are password protected.

Please see the website for details of CCLA's Privacy Notice and full details of CCLA's Data Protection Policy are available on request.
