This table shows the money you could get back over the next five years, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest £10,000. The scenarios shown have been prepared as required under EU regulatory rules and illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.

The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. As future returns are unlikely to mirror the last five years, investors should treat these illustrations with caution. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if the Manager is unable to pay out?

The assets of the Fund are held for the benefit of investors by an independent Trustee, HSBC Bank Plc, and so are held separately from those of the Manager.

The Fund is not an authorised unit trust within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and so the Fund is not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

Investors may however be eligible for compensation under the FSCS if they have claims against the Manager, Depository or other service provider of the Fund which is unable or likely to be unable to pay claims against it (for example where the firm has stopped trading and has insufficient assets to meet claims). Further details are available at <https://www.fscs.org.uk>

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the Fund itself, for three different holding periods. The figures assume you invest £10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.
