Please note: Any changes to the investment will require the signatures of all applicants.

Section 5 FATCA and CRS provisions notes

FATCA

The US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) was implemented to enable the Internal Revenue Service to combat US tax evasion. It requires “foreign financial institutions” (such as the Company) to report on US investors. Failure to comply (or be deemed compliant) with these requirements may mean that foreign financial institutions are subject to US withholding taxes on certain US sourced income and gains. Under an intergovernmental agreement between the US and the United Kingdom, the Company may be deemed compliant if it identifies and reports US taxpayer information directly to Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (HMRC).

Similar reporting requirements may also apply to the Company in respect of any Shareholders who are not solely UK tax resident following laws enacted to implement the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (CRS).

Accordingly, Shareholders should note that:

- they may be asked to provide additional information (including information regarding their tax residence) to the ACD to enable the Company to satisfy these obligations;
- the ACD may be required to report these details to HMRC; and
- HMRC may subsequently exchange this information with other governments or tax authorities in other jurisdictions.

Institutional Shareholders may be required to provide a Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN). Failure to provide the requested information may subject a Shareholder to liability for any resulting US withholding taxes, US tax information reporting and/or mandatory redemption, transfer or other termination of the Shareholder’s interest in its Shares. The GIIN for the PSDF is available on request.

By signing the application form to subscribe for Shares, each Shareholder agrees and acknowledges that, in certain circumstances, the ACD will be obliged to share this information with UK tax authorities, who may pass it on to other tax authorities. Shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of FATCA or CRS on their interest in the Company.

Individual Self-Certification

Tax Regulations require us to collect information about each investor’s tax residency. In certain circumstances (including if we do not receive a valid self-certification from you) we may be obliged to share information on your account with HMRC.

If you have any questions about your tax residency, please contact your tax advisor. Should any information provided change in the future, please ensure you advise us of the changes promptly.

Section 6 Email instructions authority

Instructions on a CCLA form, sent by email to us as a PDF, and signed in accordance by the required signatories, can be accepted if we have the relevant email instructions authority.

Please complete this section if you would like us to accept instructions by email.

Important information

A PDF version of a CCLA form attached to your email is your instruction to us and should be sent to investorqueries@fnztaservices.com. Do not send the original documentation in the post and do not resend the email and/or the attachment as your instruction may be processed again. This mailbox will automatically upload the PDF for processing so any additional information contained in the body of the email will not be seen. If you have any additional information about the instruction, please send your email and PDF to clientservices@ccla.co.uk.

Authority to accept email instructions

In consideration of the ACD agreeing to accept from us, notwithstanding the terms of the relevant mandate, from time to time instructions purporting to come from us in the form of email instructions in relation to our account(s), we confirm and accept that the ACD does not accept responsibility for, and we will not seek to hold the ACD liable for any actions, proceedings, claims, losses, damage, costs and expenses that may be suffered or incurred as a result of the ACD accepting, or acting upon, instructions that the ACD reasonably believes have come from us, or have been given on our behalf. We accept responsibility for any losses or costs that might be incurred as a result of the cancellation of any purchase or sale of units carried out as a result of the ACD accepting, or acting upon, instructions that the ACD reasonably believes have come from us or have been given on our behalf.

Important information

Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)

In accordance with our regulatory obligations, and as set out in our Privacy Notice, information will be retained for a minimum of seven years after the end of our relationship with you.

- As required under UK GDPR, consent must be given before any communication can be sent to your personal email address about services other than those already provided.
- At any time, you can ask for your personal data to be removed from the ACD databases unless it is required to be retained for legal or regulatory reasons. Please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk or telephone us at 0800 022 3505.
- If you change your email address, or any of the other information we hold is inaccurate or out of date, please email us at clientservices@ccla.co.uk.
- You can contact the the ACD office to receive a copy of any of your personal data currently held by us once we have received proof of your identity.
- Any details you give us will be held in accordance with current data protection legislation.
- We will not share your personal data with third parties, unless we have your permission to do so in accordance with your contract with us, or we are required to do so by law.
- We do not sell any personal data held.
- When you give us personal data, we take steps to ensure that it is treated securely. Information you send to us electronically is transmitted over the internet, but this cannot be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal data, the ACD cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your information, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems mainly in password accessed databases.
- We do not collect information automatically from our website.
- Personal data will be retained in the ACD systems which are password protected.

Please see www.ccla.co.uk for details of the ACD Privacy Notice and full details of the ACD Data Protection Policy are available on request.

Conflicts of interest

The ACD operates a Conflicts of Interest Policy to ensure that our clients are treated fairly. Our policy seeks to avoid circumstances which we consider may give rise to potential conflicts of interest and material disadvantage to our clients. The ACD Conflicts of Interest Policy can be found on its website at www.ccla.co.uk.

Anti-money laundering

You may be asked to provide documentation to assist the ACD in verifying your identity in accordance with regulatory requirements. This is normally done using electronic means but occasionally extra documents may be required from you to complete this process.

Client categorisation

In accordance with the FCA Rules, we are required to categorise each of our customers. We have categorised you and will treat you as a retail client unless we agree otherwise. If we have previously categorised you as a professional client or eligible counterparty, then we will continue to treat you in accordance with that previous categorisation, though you may request that we re-categorise you as a retail client.
